

Welcome to the first CHARA Community Workshop!

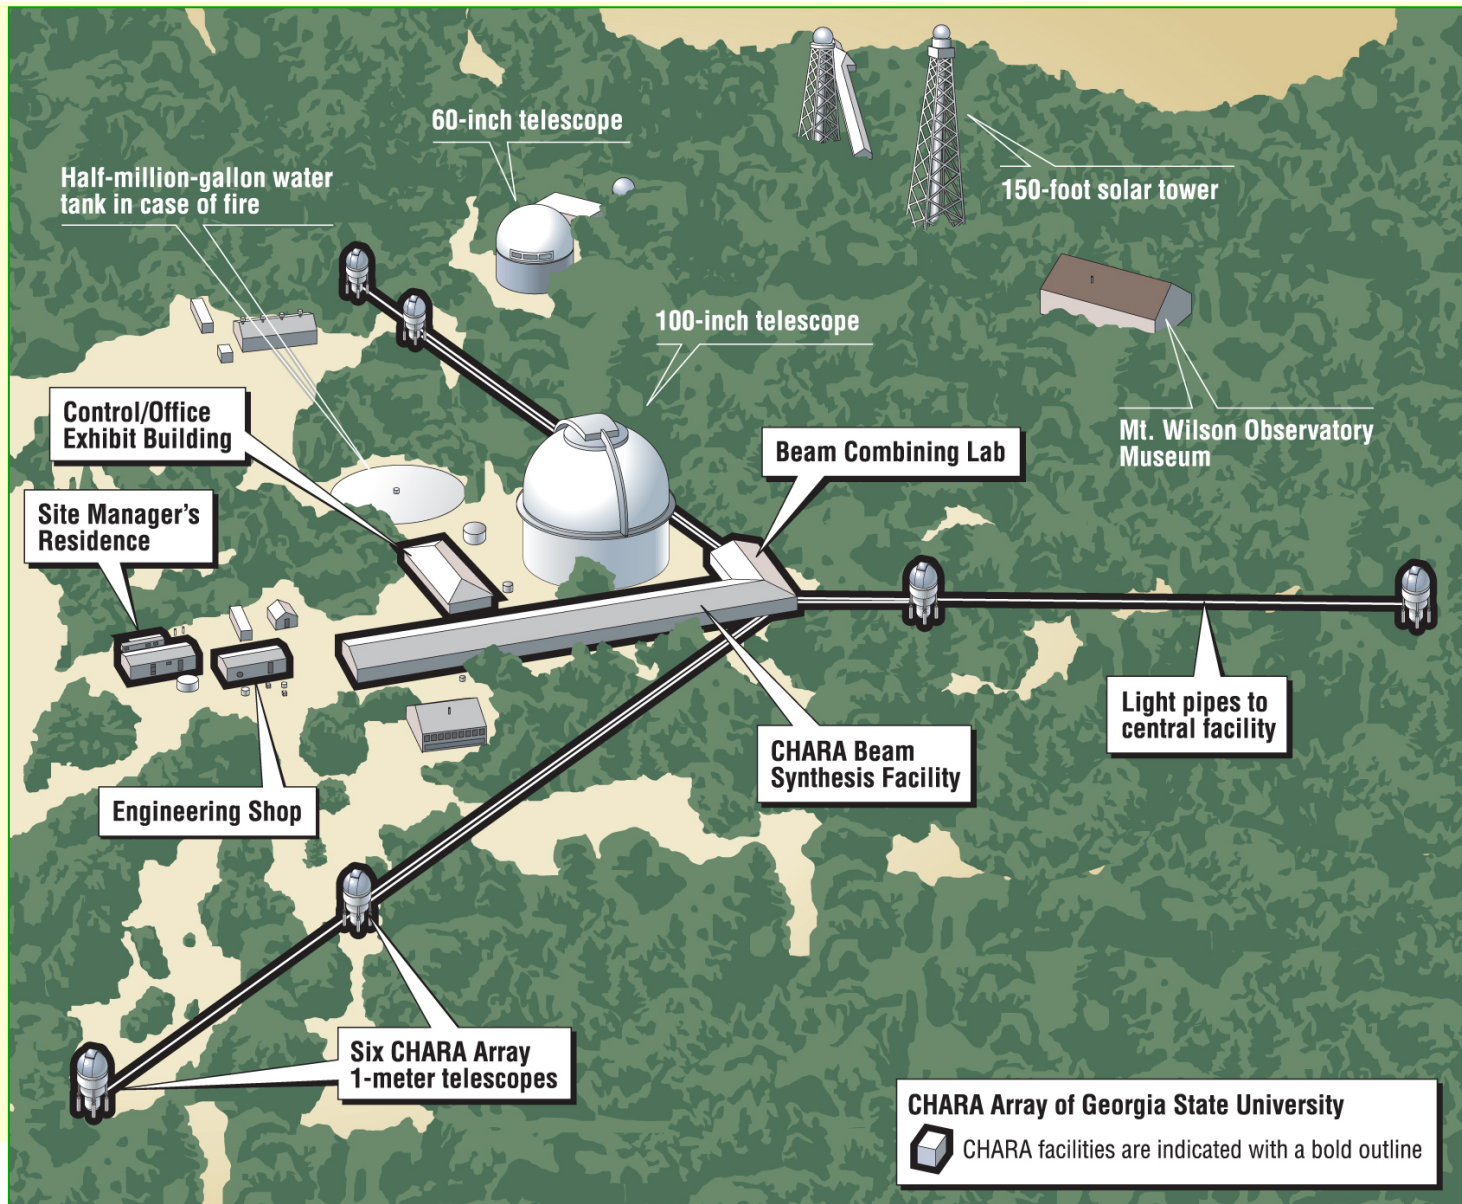

Douglas Gies, CHARA Director
Georgia State University
Atlanta, Georgia, U.S.A.

SSID: VISITOR
PASSWORD: A813A813B1

No DHCP registration required.

CHARA Community Workshop 3/15/2017

Goals

- Initiating an open access program at CHARA that is supported by a NSF/MSIP award
- Community access to telescope time and a user-friendly database of archival data
- Time allocated through NOAO TAC:
15 nights in 2017B (Aug – Dec; due March 31)
- Expanding to 25 nights/semester in future
- Provide you with tools and background to submit a winning proposal for mas science

Morning Program

Time	Topic	Speaker
09:10	CHARA Interferometer	Theo ten Brummelaar
09:50	Science with CHARA	Gail Schaefer
10:20	Observing Strategies	Chris Farrington
10:40	Coffee
11:10	Applying for Time	Steve Ridgway
11:30	VLTi	Christian Hummel
11:50	JMMC Planning Tools	Laurent Bourges
12:10	Analysis Tools	Fabien Baron

Afternoon Program

Time	Topic	Speaker
01:30	Stellar Diameters	Kaspar von Braun
01:45	Ages of Stars	Jeremy Jones
02:00	Imaging Stellar Surfaces	Fabien Baron
02:15	NPOI	Gerard van Belle
02:30	MROI	Michelle Creech-Eakman
02:45	Coffee and Open Discussion	Staff

Thursday Tour

- Optional tour of the CHARA Array at Mount Wilson Observatory beginning at 10:00 am
- Check with me for car pool arrangements

- Thanks to you and all the experts here today!